FRENCH DELF EXAMINATION RESULTS FOR 2012

DELF is an official qualification awarded by the French Ministry of Education, and it is recognised worldwide, both at university and professional level. Students take this examination in order to stimulate their learning and to give them a formal external certificate. For students who will not choose IGCSE French in Year 10, this will give them, if they are successful, a French language certificate.

Examination	Pass %
DELF LEVEL A1	98%
DELF LEVEL A2	100%
DELF LEVEL B1	100%

IELTS RESULTS

The IELTS exam, which is jointly managed by Cambridge English Language Assessment, the British Council and the IDP: IELTS Australia, assesses the language ability of candidates who need to study or work where English is the language of communication. IELTS is recognised by universities and employers in many countries, such as Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the UK and the USA, as well as by professional bodies, immigration authorities and other government agencies. Our students attained the following results:

Percentage of students who attained IELTS score of 6.5 or above, as required by UK universities
IELTS 6.5+	95%

IELTS Top Performers:

Maxim Surchin IELTS score: 8.5
George Jubran IELTS score: 8.0

ECDL EXAMINATIONS

The ECDL (European Computer Driving Licence) is an internationally recognised standard of ICT competence, a widely acceptable certificate that asserts that the holder has the knowledge and skills needed to use the most common computer applications efficiently and productively in the workplace/home. It consists of seven modules covering computer theory and practice. To achieve an ECDL Core certification, the candidate must successfully pass in all seven modules. The pass mark is 75% for each module.

The School is an ECDL Approved Test Centre and manages ECDL examinations with great success:

ECDL Core Examinations for 2011– 2012		Pass %
Module 1: Concepts of Information Technology		100
